Guidelines to Grade Interpretation<sup>1</sup>

August 4, 2006

As stated in the FIS Grading Policy,<sup>2</sup> the Faculty of Information Studies has adopted the Governing Council's Graduate Grading and Evaluation Practices Policy.<sup>3</sup> The present document presents a recommended guideline for interpreting FIS grades assigned under that policy. As such, it supplements the Grading Policy. As stated in the FIS policy, instructors may elect to develop their own grade interpretations in ways appropriate to their course, but such specialized interpretations are to remain approximately in line with the guidelines given here.

Grade		Interpretation
A	A+	Truly exceptional work, demonstrating tremendous initiative, originality, creativity, and insight, based on a superb understanding of the subject matter.
